WE'D LOVE TO DISCUSS YOUR ANTARCTIC OR HIGH ARCTIC TRAVEL PLANS

Antarctica & Arctic Travel Centre's are the specialist Polar areas of Tailor-Made Journeys. It's our first-hand knowledge that allows us to help you organise what could be described as the ultimate holiday. We will also look after your pre and post voyage arrangements, whether that's in South America or in Norway, Canada or Iceland.

We have hand-picked a small number of vessels and operators that we know well and trust to provide you with that 'holiday of a lifetime'. Our goal is to give you professional and independent advice to help you select the right vessel, voyage, operator and travel at the right time to maximise your enjoyment and value from your trip.

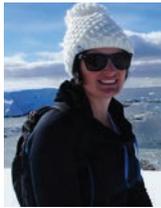

MEET OUR KNOWLEDGEABLE TEAM

Alex Burridge
Managing Director

In 2001 I undertook the first of many voyages to Antarctica, Falkland Islands, South Georgia and later the same year to the High Arctic (Svalbard/Spitsbergen). My experience and knowledge gained whilst working for several Polar ship operators, allows us to offer expert, independent, advice to ensure your trip south really is as special as it should be.

Alana Lewthwaite

My experience in Antarctica can be described as nothing short of amazing. Taking a 2 hour flight from Punta Arenas, Chile in a purpose-built BAe-146 plane to King George Island in the South

Shetlands. From King George Island, it was straight onto a Zodiac to board the waiting MV Ocean Nova, a 68-passenger ship with all the amenities needed for an exciting journey along the Antarctic Peninsula.

Rachel Callus

In March 2017 I was lucky enough to visit Antarctica, South Georgia & Falkland Islands on-board the Luxury/ Expedition ship Sea Spirit. It was fantastic – mind blowing actually (occasionally literally – the winds down South have nothing to stop them). Nature lovers, history buffs, geology enthusiasts – every one of them will be overwhelmed by what they see it really was a trip of a lifetime and an experience of my life. I'd love to share with you my new-found experiences.

Jennifer Boyd

My inaugural cruise to Antarctica was in 2004, the experience was beyond all of my expectations. Magnificent glaciers, beautiful icebergs, impressive mountains and the wildlife encounters all contribute to the allure of the Antarctic continent. The second time round I experienced kayaking and camping on the ice as well finally experiencing the polar plunge.

Hayley Crowden

In 2015 I realised a lifelong ambition of travelling to Antarctica. I was fortunate enough to also visit the Falkland Islands and South Georgia, which I have to admit was my favourite (much to the chagrin of some Antarctic aficionados). Gold Harbour on the southern tip of South Georgia has to be one of the most stunning places on our planet.

Cinzia Mucciante

I recently returned from the Canadian High Arctic (Baffin Island and Greenland) – I struggle to find words to describe just how amazing the trip was. The scenery, the wildlife, the expedition crew and the ship were all amazing. I didn't realise just how powerful the ice would be, massive glaciers and near Illulissat thousands of icebergs.

GETTING THERE

We can look after all aspects of your voyage including all of your international flights whether that's to South America, Canada, or to Norway or Iceland (the major starting points for voyages in the High Arctic).

We are a member of IAATO (International Association of Antarctic Tour Operators) and AECO (Association of Arctic Expedition Cruise Operators), as well as a member of AFTA (Australian Federation of Travel Agents) and of ATAS (AFTA Travel Accreditation Scheme) who set the benchmark of quality for the travel industry.

RADISSON BLU LONGYEARBYEN

THIEF HOTEL – OSLO

LOS CAUQUENES RESORT AND SPA – USHUAIA

THE SINGULAR SANTIAGO

COMPLETE SERVICE

Additional arrangements & accommodation before and after your voyage. Each ship has a range of cabin types available with size often being the main difference. We usually arrange all additional accommodation and appropriate transfers. Here are a few examples that showcase the diversity of accommodation.

BUENOS AIRES – THE LEGADO MITICO is an urbane 3-storey townhouse in the city’s bohemian Palermo Viejo neighbourhood. The hotel’s style might be called ‘aristocratic Argentine’; and 11 beautiful themed guestrooms are sensitively decorated to evoke the spirit of Argentina’s cultural and historical icons.

SANTIAGO – THE SINGULAR SANTIAGO, newly emerged in the city’s historic Lastarria neighbourhood, has been designed to embrace the area’s cultural and artistic heritage while adding a cutting-edge modernity. It maintains an old-world feeling with 19th century French influences, while incorporating a contemporary elegance and high level amenities.

PUNTA ARENAS – CABO DE HORNOS The elegant Cabo de Hornos Hotel is ideally situated and has stunning views of the straits of Magellan. All ‘Fly Cruise’ clients overnight here before boarding a flight to King George Island (Antarctic Peninsula) or Mount Pleasant (Falkland Islands).

USHUAIA - LOS CAUQUENES RESORT & SPA is just 7 km away from the town of Ushuaia (free transport to and from the town), has 54 rooms and suites, direct access to a private beach and outstanding views from all rooms and hotel areas. In addition to the spa Los Cauquenes offers gourmet cuisine in their restaurant Reinamora with onehundred-percent Patagonian dishes like lamb and king crab await.

OTTAWA – ARC HOTEL An inviting retreat within the surrounding urban landscape, The ARC Hotel welcomes business and leisure travellers to Canada’s vibrant capital. Inspired by the history as Downtown Ottawa’s first boutique hotel, providing personalized service and experiences.

OSLO – THE THIEF HOTEL Located between the iconic Astrup Fearnley Museum, the canals on Tjuvholmen and the Oslofjord, most of the 118 rooms have brilliant views. Timeless elegance with clear references to contemporary art and design is the common denominator for THIEF furnishing. The hotel’s own art curator has hand-picked art for every single room and suite from the THIEF ART collection.

LONGYEARBYEN, SPISTBERGEN – RADISSON BLUE Located on Norway’s largest island and only 1,300 km from the North Pole. One of the Northern most permanent settlements in the world, Longyearbyen provides views of the area’s snowy peaks and glaciers, the summertime glow of the midnight sun and an array of Arctic wildlife species. Keep the chill at bay in one of the 95 comfortable rooms, prior to joining you Expedition voyage.

OVERVIEW

Both the Akademik Sergey Vavilov and the Akademik Ioffe were built in Finland in 1989. Both ships are ice-strengthened very stable, manoeuvrable and as a result quite fast. The Expedition staff are amongst the best with a very strong emphasis on guest service. Excellent Russian captains and crew have decades of experience in operating in Polar regions.

OVERVIEW

The Kapitan Khlebnikov combines power and technology with comfort and has 52 en-suite cabins and a maximum of 110 guests. The Kapitan Khlebnikov has two helicopters to take passengers on excursions. It's these helicopters that transport guests from the ship, 'parked' in sea-ice, closer to the Emperor penguin rookery on fast sea-ice close to Snow Hill Island.

OVERVIEW

The 50 Years of Victory is the largest and most modern and powerful nuclear-powered icebreaker in the world. The "Victory" is a new (launched in 1993) generation ship, an upgrade of the Arktika-class. The spoon-shaped bow of the "Victory" is designed for greater icebreaking ability and makes the ship capable to force its way through 2.5 meters thick ice fields.

BOOKING TERMS & CONDITIONS

Please read the following booking conditions carefully and make sure you understand them before booking your holiday. By paying your non-refundable deposit to Tailor-Made Journeys Pty Ltd trading as Antarctica Travel Centre (including Arctic Travel Centre) you are accepting these conditions.

1. Tour costs

Costs are based on ground costs, airfares and exchange rates at the time of booking. While we make every effort not to increase prices, in the event of exchange rate fluctuations, increases in hotel rates, airfares, entrance fees, fuel costs or increases in ground operator fees, we reserve the right to amend our prices, with or without notice, at any time up to and including the day of departure. Acceptance of this arrangement is an express condition of making a booking.

Rates

Fares are quoted in US dollars (US$ – Ocean Nova, Hebridean Sky, Island Sky, Akademik Sergey Vavilov, Akademik Ioffe, 50 Years of Victory and Sea Spirit) and Australian Dollars (AU$ – National Geographic Explorer, Silver Explorer, Silver Cloud, Le Soréal, Le Boréal).

Rates for voyages, flights are based on tariffs and exchange rates in effect at the time booking and are subject to change prior to departure. Substantial changes in tariffs, exchange rates and the price of fuel, services and labour sometimes increase the cost of expedition arrangements significantly. Antarctica Travel Centre reserves the right to alter prices or introduce surcharges accordingly, even if payment has been received in full. All travellers are required to pay for their excursions and additional purchases in conjunction with their excursions in the same currency.

Discounts and Promotions; Antarctica Travel Centre has the right to limit, withdraw or change any and/or all discounts and promotions without notice and/or compensation.

2. Not included in your tour costs

Airfares unless otherwise stated, visa and passport costs, travel insurance, excess baggage, airport departure and ticket taxes, laundry, postage, telephone calls and items of a personal nature, vaccination and medical expenses, meals not mentioned in itinerary, beverages, and gratuities.

3. Insurance

It is a condition of booking with Antarctica Travel Centre that you take out comprehensive travel insurance for the full duration of your holiday. We suggest that you take out insurance at the time of booking and that the policy should include, but not be limited to, the following features: loss of deposit through cancellation; injury; death; theft; loss of luggage and personal items; curtailment of tours en route; medical expenses; cancellation of advance purchase airfares; additional expenses to cover hotel accommodation and repatriation costs to Australia should your tour need to be extended or curtailed due to illness while overseas, or due to a need to return because of an unexpected death or illness of a close relative.

Fly Cruise voyages ONLY: The operation of flights from Punta Arenas to or from King George Island are weather dependent.

FOR CANCELLATION DUE TO ALL OTHER EVENTS OF FORCE MAJEURE, THE STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY.

4. Changes and transfers

Should you wish to make changes (not including transfers) to your booking after confirmation has been advised, a fee of $75.00 per booking will be levied on each change made. Any changes requested by you after final documentation has been issued will incur a fee of $150.00 per booking plus any other fees levied by hotels, ground/cruise operators and/or airlines. We will do our best to process and obtain confirmation of your changes but it is important to realise that changes, especially close to departure date, can take some time to confirm and some may not be possible.

Transfers of Deposits or Payments to Alternative Voyages

Should travellers be unable to take the expedition they originally booked but would like to travel on an alternative date, it may be possible to transfer deposits or payments from the original booking to an alternative voyage. Antarctica Travel Centre reserves the right to prohibit transfers on any of its voyages. Should a transfer request be granted, a change fee will be charged by the cruise operator.

5. Itinerary variations

It is possible that circumstances beyond our control may necessitate a route or itinerary change and, in the event of such an occurrence, we reserve the right to cancel or re-schedule tour departures and itineraries. Where it is necessary to change a hotel, we reserve the right to substitute accommodation of a similar standard. No refund will be available in the event of an itinerary or hotel change. The itinerary described is subject to change at the discretion of the ship's Captain and voyage Expedition Leader. This is an expedition to a remote part of the world and the ship operator reserves the right to change the itinerary due to weather conditions, availability of anchorages, political conditions or other factors beyond its control, without consulting the traveller. It is understood that such decisions will be made in the best interests of all travellers aboard and with regard to the safety of the vessel. The traveller has no right to any refund or other considerations in the event of these itinerary changes.

The traveller must be in possession of a valid passport and any visas, permits and certificates that are required for the duration of the services provided by Antarctica Travel Centre, and shall arrange for such vaccinations as are normally recommended for the countries through which he/she intends to travel.

6. Cancellation

If it becomes necessary for you to cancel your tour, you must notify us in writing. Upon receipt of your written notification, cancellation will take effect and the ship operator charges specified on the relevant pages will apply per person. Akademik Sergey Vavilov – Page 6, Akademik Ioffe – Page 7, National Geographic Explorer – Page 8, Sea Spirit – Page 9, Ocean Nova – Page 10, Hebridean Sky & Island Sky – Page 11, Le Soréal, Le Boréal – Page 12, Silver Cloud and Silver Explorer – Page 13. You will also be liable for any additional penalties levied by hotels, ground operators and/or airlines.

Cancellation by Ship Operator

Antarctica Travel Centre and its partners begin planning voyages many months in advance of departure. Occasionally, changes have to be made both before and after bookings have been confirmed. Antarctica Travel Centre reserves the right to cancel any service prior to departure, in which case payments made will be refunded without further obligation on our part. Please note that, in the event of cancellation, Antarctica Travel Centre will not be responsible for the cost of any additional travel arrangements beyond the voyage, or other items not purchased through Antarctica Travel Centre.

Force Majeure

Antarctica Travel Centre has the right in the case of force majeure (e.g. war, uprising and natural disasters, abnormal/exceptional weather and ice conditions, legal stipulations of the local/regional authorities, and "acts of God") to cancel your trip. Antarctica Travel Centre may not be held liable for any claims made due to force majeure. If situations of force majeure occur during the trip, Antarctica Travel Centre or its representatives will try to offer an alternative program. If this should prove impossible, either Antarctica Travel Centre, its representative, or you are entitled to cancel the trip. In such a case, Antarctica Travel Centre will not be held financially liable. However, in the event of any cost savings, Antarctica Travel Centre shall refund these monies to you. Antarctica Travel Centre or your travel agent is obliged to assist you in obtaining a return trip/flight, however, in such circumstances you are responsible for any costs incurred.

Antarctica Travel Centre is not liable for costs incurred by you in preparation of the tour, nor for reservations of travel components (such as, but not limited to, flights, hotels, connecting programs, travel insurance) which are booked elsewhere in combination with the trip booked with Antarctica Travel Centre.

7. Refund/unused services

No refund is available for cancellation after travel has commenced. If you make any alteration to any portion of your holiday while you are away, costs incurred by such alteration will be at your own expense. After the holiday has commenced, no refunds are available for any services/ground content provided in the tour price but not utilised by you for any reason.

Adventure Options (e.g. kayaking & camping) Prices quoted are based on group participation and no refunds will be made for any part of the program in which you choose not to participate, including kayaking, camping, cross-country skiing, snow-shoeing, or mountaineering, or which, at the discretion of the Captain and Expedition Leader, may or may not proceed for operational reasons or due to adverse conditions. It is understood that refunds cannot be made to travellers who do not complete the services for any reason whatsoever.

8. Health and immigration

Medical forms, or, if applicable, a direct online link to the cruise operator's required forms, will be sent to you via email once your deposit has been received. You must review and complete the forms immediately (one for each person travelling) and, if not completed via the operator's link, return them to Antarctica Travel Centre or your travel agent. Questions that relate to your physical or mental suitability may need to be completed by a medical practitioner. Medical forms must be filled out in full, honestly and accurately, and disclose all medical history and information. Should your medical situation change after submitting the medical forms, it is your responsibility to advise Antarctica Travel Centre (or the cruise operator) immediately. The information submitted will be reviewed and Antarctica Travel Centre (or the cruise operator) reserves the right to ask for further information, clarity on information, or for documentation from your medical practitioner.

Antarctica Travel Centre (or the cruise operator) reserves the right to deny passage to any traveller on reasonable medical grounds. For travellers who book within 90/120/180 days of departure, completed medical forms must be received within 7 days of making payment. The cruise operator reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to deny boarding, without refund or resulting expenses, to any traveller at the pier for any reason, including but not limited to the event that the on-board medical officer determines the traveller not to have disclosed accurate medical information. It is also your responsibility to provide information of any pre-existing medical conditions and/or disability that could reasonably be expected to affect your booking, as well as the enjoyment of others on the trip. Antarctica Travel Centre (or the cruise operator) reserves the right, at its reasonable discretion, to refuse your participation on a trip and/or cancel your booking.

You should familiarise yourself with any health or visa requirements that may be applicable in the areas you intend visiting, and you shall be responsible for all exit, entry, health and other documents required by laws, regulations, orders, demands or requirements of the countries visited or transited. You shall carry a valid passport at all times.

9. Consular advice

We recommend you contact the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs & Trade for current official travel advice concerning the countries you will visit.

10. Common sense

Common sense and ordinary care before and during travel must be exercised. We cannot be held responsible for problems, damage or loss of enjoyment brought about by a lack of reasonable care, understanding or attention by you.

11. Documentation

It is your responsibility to check all air tickets and vouchers immediately upon receipt and to contact us at once if you believe any bookings have been made incorrectly or necessary documentation has been omitted. Please note that route maps provided by us are for general information and may not necessarily indicate exact routes. Antarctica Travel Centre has done its utmost to ensure that all tour descriptions, information and documentation issued is accurate in any printed or online media, brochure or publication. This information provided is given in good faith; however, things change and some of the information may become out of date. Antarctica Travel Centre shall not be liable for any injury, damage or loss caused by any unintended inaccuracy.

12. Airline responsibility clause

This brochure is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit, any airline whose services are used in the course of the tours, such services being subject to the airline's conditions of contract.

13. Responsibility

These booking conditions form part of the general conditions. Payment of a deposit is an acknowledgement that you have read, understood and accept the terms and conditions of Tailor-Made Journeys Pty Ltd trading as Antarctica Travel Centre and that we act only as an agent for carriers, hotels, ground operators, coach companies and suppliers of other travel services (suppliers) used on these tours. All bookings are subject to the terms and conditions of the liability imposed by the other suppliers, some of whom limit or exclude liability in respect of death, personal injury, delay, loss of or damage to baggage.

All tickets and documents are issued subject to the terms and conditions under which the suppliers provide the services. We accept no responsibility for carrier-caused delays, schedule changes, sickness or accidents. You accept that you may be travelling through areas of political or climatic instability, high altitude and remote areas, and areas without proper medical services, and you accept the associated risks. Should we deem it desirable for political, climatic or other reasons, to amend or vary any itinerary, we may do so by shortening, varying or completely re-routing the trip in which case no objection will be made by the participant.

You authorise the company and its suppliers to take all necessary action in respect of medical treatment and emergency evacuation and agree that all associated costs are to be paid by you. The terms and conditions are incapable of alteration or waiver by us or any agent and by making a booking you, your next of kin, heirs, administrators and executors, accept all the conditions of contract and are bound by them.

Compensation

Compensation for personal injury is limited in accordance with the provisions of any applicable International Conventions. These include, for example, in the course of road travel, air travel, rail travel, sea travel, or hotel accommodation and are limited to the provisions of, respectively, the Geneva Convention 1973, the Warsaw Convention as amended by the Hague Protocol 1955, the 1961 Berne Convention, the 1974 Athens Convention and the 1962 Paris Convention.

Limitation of Liability

Antarctica Travel Centre purchases transportation, hotel accommodations, and other services from various independent suppliers that are not subject to its control. Neither Antarctica Travel Centre, its affiliates, owners, officers, agents, employees, nor any associate organisation, shall be held liable for any act, default, injury (including death), loss, expense, damage, deviation, delay, curtailment or inconvenience caused or suffered by any person or their property, howsoever arising, which may occur or be incurred by any organisation or person, even though such act, default, injury, loss, expense, damage, deviation, delay, curtailment or inconvenience may have been caused or contributed to: (a) by the act, neglect or default of Antarctica Travel Centre, or of any persons for whose acts it would otherwise be responsible, or (b) defects or failures of any aircraft, vessel, automotive vehicle or other equipment or instrumentality under the control of independent suppliers. In issuing tickets for transportation of the travel by any means and making arrangements for travel, hotel or other accommodation, Antarctica Travel Centre is not acting as principal but only as agent for the companies, corporations, owner, public carriers or persons providing or offering the means of transportation and accommodation. You further understand that Antarctica Travel Centre neither owns nor operates such third party suppliers and accordingly, agree to seek remedies directly and only against those suppliers and not hold Antarctica Travel Centre responsible for their acts or omissions. In no event will Antarctica Travel Centre be responsible for incidental, consequential or special damage or loss suffered by any person.

Antarctica Travel Centre's maximum liability, for any reason whatsoever, will be limited to the amount paid to Antarctica Travel Centre for its services. Without limitation, Antarctica Travel Centre is not responsible for any negligent acts, or acts which are beyond its control, including but not limited to acts of God or force majeure, weather emergencies, breakdown, or failure of diving or mechanical equipment, government actions, inclement weather, sickness, attacks by animals, availability of medical care or the adequacy of the same, criminal activity of any kind, terrorism, war, civil disturbance, sanitary conditions, quality or sanitation of food, quarantine, customs, regulations, epidemics, strikes, hotel overbooking, safety and/or security standards at hotels or other accommodations, or for any other reason beyond the control of Antarctica Travel Centre. You understand, agree with, and agree to be legally bound by the terms of the release and waiver of liability set forth herein.

Antarctica Travel Centre reserves the right (at their discretion) to alter or omit any part of the itinerary or change any reservation, feature and/or means of conveyance without notice and for any reason whatsoever, without allowance or refund and with extra costs, if any, resulting, said changes being paid by the travellers. We reserve the right to cancel any services prior to departure, in which case payment will be refunded without further obligation on its part. Antarctica Travel Centre shall not be responsible for any injury to person (whether or not resulting in death) or damage to property arising out of any act of war, insurrection, revolt or other civil uprising or military action occurring in the countries of origin, destination or passage. In case of a medical problem arising during the voyage, either on board or on shore, which results in costs for evacuation, use of aircraft or repatriation, the responsibility for payment of these costs belongs solely to the traveller. The traveller contract in use by the carriers concerned (when issued) shall constitute the sole contract between the transportation companies and the purchaser of these services and/or passage. By accepting the ticket, the traveller also agrees to its terms and conditions. By payment of your deposit, you certify that you do not have any mental, physical or other condition or disability that would create a hazard for yourself or other travellers and you confirm that you are physically and mentally capable of participating in the activity and willingly and knowingly elect to participate in your travel package in spite of the potential risk of danger.

By payment of your deposit, you certify that you willingly and voluntarily assume full responsibility for any injury, loss or damage suffered, whether caused in whole or in part by the negligence of the owners, directors, agents, officers, employees, contractors or subcontractors of Antarctica Travel Centre. Antarctica Travel Centre reserves the right to remove a passenger or cancel or withdraw any reservation at any time at its sole discretion.

Release of Liability

In consideration of the services and arrangements provided by Antarctica Travel Centre, you, for yourself and for your heirs, personal representatives or assigns, do hereby release, waive, discharge, hold harmless and agree to indemnify Antarctica Travel Centre, and its owners, officers, directors, employees and affiliates from any and all claims, actions, or losses for bodily injury, property damage, wrongful death, loss of services, lost profits, consequential, exemplary, indirect or punitive damages or otherwise which may arise out of or occur during your travel in connection with the scheduled travel package and any activities conducted in conjunction therewith.

YOU SPECIFICALLY UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT YOU ARE RELEASING, DISCHARGING AND WAIVING ANY CLAIMS OR ACTIONS THAT YOU MAY HAVE PRESENTLY OR IN THE FUTURE FOR THE NEGLIGENT ACTS OR CONDUCT OF THE OWNERS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS OR AFFILIATES OF ANTARCTICA TRAVEL CENTRE.

Express Waiver of Consequential, Punitive or Exemplary Damages

Regardless of the situation or circumstances giving rise to a claim, you waive any right to seek consequential, punitive or exemplary damages against Antarctica Travel Centre, its owners, officers, directors, agents, contractors and employees, for any reason whatsoever.

14. Customer Service

In the unlikely event that you should have a complaint about your services offered by Antarctica Travel Centre we urge you to bring this up with your guide, the tour/expedition leader or company representative immediately so that we can attempt to rectify the issue. If at the end of the trip you feel that your complaint has not been adequately dealt with you must notify us in writing no later than 30 days after the end date of the services Antarctica Travel Centre has provided.

15. Privacy and Publicity

You agree that Antarctica Travel Centre may use images taken of you, without recourse and/or compensation to you. Such images will only be used for promotional and Centre finds appropriate. In order to supply services to you, Antarctica Travel Centre needs to collect certain personal details from you. This information will be disclosed to our suppliers and representatives for the purpose of organising and operating your tour or expedition but will not be used for any other purpose. More information on publicity and privacy can be found at: www.antarcticatravelcentre.com.au/privacy

16. Law of contract

This contract shall be governed by the laws of the state of Victoria, Australia and any legal action arising from it shall be only under the jurisdiction of Victorian courts.

ADDITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS

We can book all your flights, pre- and post-cruise accommodation and transfers (if needed), and any additional travel arrangements throughout South America.

A non-refundable deposit of 10% of the total cost of these arrangements or $550.00 per person, whichever is the greater, is required to proceed.

OTHER USEFUL INFORMATION

VISAS/ENTRY FEES

Most countries require you to travel with a passport that has no less than 6 months remaining validity.

Australian passport-holders do not require a visa for Chile but must pay a Reciprocity Fee on arrival at Santiago Airport which allows multiple re-entries within a fixed period. For requirements regarding other nationalities and/or entry to other South American countries, check with us or your travel agent.

Australian passport holders do not currently require a visa for Australia. Norwegian passport holders do not currently require a visa for Norway (Svalbard), Denmark (Greenland) or Iceland.

Canada have introduced an Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) program. Australians now need to obtain an online authorization before flying to Canada. A fee of $CA7 is payable for processing an application for an electronic travel authorization.

HEALTH & VACCINATIONS

An Arctic or Antarctic trip may be somewhat strenuous at times and it is important that you are in reasonably good health with a high level of mobility, able to get in and out of Zodiacs on the excursions and to complete emergency evacuation procedures unassisted. No particular vaccinations are required to travel to Antarctica. However, if you are arranging pre- or post-cruise arrangements in South America, check with your doctor or specialist travel medical centre whether there is anything you may require.

REQUIRED CRUISE DOCUMENTATION

Once your booking is deposited and confirmed, you will be required to complete a number of forms providing personal and medical information, arrival/ departure details and, if applicable, adventure option waivers, gear rental requests, etc. Depending on the cruise operator, you will either receive these as hard copy forms to be returned to us or to your travel agent or will be provided with an online link directly to the cruise operator. All completed information must be received or entered online no later than 90-120 days prior to your travel date.

NORTH POLE ONLY 'LETTER OF INVITATION'

You will be provided with a 'letter of invitation' which should be included when applying for your Russian visa.

ACCOMMODATION & TRANSFERS

We require all clients to arrive in starting point no later than the night before the voyage departs. Some operators include a pre- and/or post-voyage night in their voyage cost, along with an arrival transfer to your hotel, while others do not. At the end of the cruise, most operators include a group transfer from the ship to the airport or into the town centre. If accommodation and/or transfers are not included in your voyage cost, or if you would like to spend extra nights in the city prior to your cruise and perhaps enjoy some tours and activities, we are able to book all your additional arrangements.
