Dear Travellers,

We have been entirely overwhelmed by the magnificent entries we received for our year-long Tailor-Made Journeys Photography Competition. My reason behind hosting the competition was with the hope to reignite memories in those who entered from journeys past travelled. I sincerely hope that this was the case for all those who entered – congratulations to all the winners, monthly, overall and to everyone whose image is featured – thank you for sharing.

Thank you for your continued support and we hope you appreciate the wonderful images in this calendar as much as we did.

*Kind Regards,
Alex Burridge*

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE WINNERS OF THE TAILOR-MADE JOURNEYS PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION

1st place: Querida David, Snow Falling on Gentoos.

An evocative image of the harsh environment to which these Gentoo Penguins are superbly adapted.

2nd Place: Michelle Feros, Ponds of Maras, Peru.

Beautiful colours, lines and story-telling.

3rd place: Jacqui Read, Courting Gentoo Penguins.

From the overall competition judge David Sinclair:

"Wow, just wow! It was a pleasure to see so many incredible places through the eyes of your guests. Congratulations to all for capturing an array of amazing moments. Of course with hundreds of images to sort through it was very difficult to identify three winners. Well done to all the entrants and I wish you all happy travels and many more magical moments."

David is a wildlife, nature and travel photographer. He's happiest in the polar regions where he's been working as a photographer, guide and expedition leader for 13 years. He loves helping others to improve their photography and to share wild places and experiences.
